Review

Compare:

Ephesians 4:17-18, 24: “With the Lord’s authority I say this: Live no longer as the Gentiles do, for they are hopelessly confused. Their minds are full of darkness; they wander far from the life God gives because they have closed their minds and hardened their hearts against him...Instead, let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes.”	Romans 12:2: “Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.”
---	---

In both passages Paul is saying “Don’t be like the rest of the world, but rather, be _____.” The change needs to take place in your _____.

(See also Romans 6:1-4)

If you want God to change your _____ then first you need to let him change your _____.

Ephesians 5:21-33 (This is about _____ and _____.)

There are two keys to understanding this passage. The first is in verse 21: “_____ to one another out of reverence for Christ.” The second key is to understand that although this is a profound mystery, Paul is talking and _____ and the _____.

Ephesians 6:1-4 This is about _____ and _____.

God commands that children _____ their parents and _____ them.

Ephesians 6:5-9

The application of this passage that is most appropriate for today is the _____ / _____ relationship.

We are to do our work _____, as if we were working directly for _____.
